PRAYER: I'M SO CONFUSED!

| Matt. 6:6 – "when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father." Matt. 7:7,8 – "Ask and it will be given you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you." The verb tenses are | I Thess 5:17 – pray continually (KJV – "without | |

There is a difference between "Teach us pray" and "teach us HOW to pray". They knew HOW to do it — the words, the formulas, the bodily postures, which direction to face - but, as they watched Jesus pray, they realized they didn't know what it meant It hink their request was, "Jesus, teach us to get beyond formulas and rituals and programs and teach us to pray — to really communicate with the Father, the way You do." Takeaway: 1. Why pray? I Thess. 5:17 — "Pray continually" - Mark Batterson put it this way: God wants us to live our lives in prayer mode. Prayer is the only way we are going to reach our God-given potential If you take prayer out of the equation, all we can hope for is our human best — and I want more than that!" You don't HAVE to pray — you to pray! 2. Allow seeming paradoxes and contradictions to exist for God — stop trying to them out. "The hidden things belong to God." (Deut. 29:29) (The rest of the verse says that the things that are revealed belong to us and our children — concentrate on what has | Things that seem contradictory to us are not bothersome to | ! |
