

“PERSISTENT COUGH” PRAYING!

I Thess. 5:17 – (KJV) pray without ceasing (NIV) Pray continually

Ps. 5:3 – “In the morning, O Lord, You hear my voice; in the morning I lay my requests before You and wait in expectation.”

1. Through the _____ – beginning in the _____
– as you are waking up
Getting ready – praying through the Lord’s Prayer;
praying through your day;
for your family and their responsibilities;
as you drive into _____; at the end of the day
Saturate your day with _____

Col. 4:2 – “Devote yourself to prayer, being watchful and thankful” and then he tells them to pray for him, and then in v. 5 he says “Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity.”

Live your life in expectant watchfulness to see what God is doing. Watch in expectation. (The Reticular Activating System (RAS) determines what you notice and what goes unnoticed.)

Jesus- Matt. 9:35,36 - “Jesus went through all the towns and villages...When He saw the crowds He had compassion on them...”

2. Things you see on the _____ – “as you go”.

Peter – Acts 10:9,10 – “while the meal was being prepared”

3. Pray in the “gaps” – the “_____times” – while you’re waiting

I Thess. 5:19 (KJV) – “Quench not the Spirit.”

4. Follow the Spirit’s promptings

5. _____
Pray through the news

6. Pray the _____ – this is closely aligned with meditation
“You will keep in perfect peace those whose mind is fixed on you” – Lord, help me keep my mind fixed on You today.”

Let’s build a lifestyle of constant, persistent communication with God.
